1. Mr. Norman Sugarman of the Bureau of Internal Revenue called me today in regard to an exemption claimed by the [] which he indicated was supported by the [] Since the question apparently runs to the exemption of the organization rather than to any of its members, he felt the decision would be favorable. I told him that action need not be withheld at his office as long as it did not prejudice a decision in favor of the gift aspects of stipendiary payments to people doing research for []
